

AUTUMN COLOURS IN LAPLAND

Adventure travel in the Europe's largest wilderness area

Discover the multicoloured Lapland nature with the Ruska coming, a natural phenomenon that takes place before the arrival of the cold winter. The landscapes are covered with bright scarlet and gold colours that combined with the mountains, give the startling appearance of an impressionist painting.

We will stay in Saariselkä, at a cozy and comfortably log cabins, equipped with sauna and a fireplace.

During the day, we will visit a reindeer farm to learn about traditional Sami culture, we will cruise on Inari lake, with over 1,000 square kilometers and more than 3,000 islands, we will also enjoy in a small island tour in Holy Island Ukko, we could visit the Siida Museum to know about the life of the Sami people and part of their culture and history.

As early evening began to set in, we will go in search of the magical "Northern Lights" with a quad bike and with a horse carriage.

Fishing excursions at the Taimenjärvi Lake, hiking to Urho Kekkonen National Park or Lemmenjoki, river rafting, horse riding, gold panning, canoeing or mountain bikes, are some of the activities that await for us in an optimal area of observation of the Northern Lights. Who sees an Aurora Borealis never forget it...
