

WITH INUIT PEOPLE FROM GREENLAND

Trip to live with the Inuit of Greenland accompanied by an expert anthropologist

Francesc Bailon, an anthropologist and specialist in Inuit culture, will accompany us on this cultural journey. Accommodation in Inuit local houses, archaeological sites, visit the place where Inuit women committed suicide, the oldest house in Greenland, the largest icebergs in the northern hemisphere, etc.

From the hand of Francesc we will approach one of the most unique and fascinating peoples of the planet, the Inuit. Their harmony between tradition and modernity, without changing the medium in which they live and survive, is one example that, currently and with environmental problems that we experience, can make us reflect on the possibilities still offered by nature to man.

We will live with the Inuit which means "human beings" and we will know some of the most important aspects of their culture, not to mention their land, wild and untouched and which they call Kalaallit Nunaat.
